Irish Legal News is the only daily news service for lawyers in both Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Since its launch in 2015 Irish Legal News has grown quickly to gain a readership of 15,000 which continues to grow daily as lawyers in both jurisdictions sign up for our free daily newsletter.

Our mix of news, events, blogs, opinions and case law is now part of the daily routine for thousands of criminal and civil and commercial lawyers as well as in-house solicitors in the private and public sectors.

Irish Legal News is fast, free and focused and delivered directly to the lawyers, senior solicitors, partners, barristers, judges and lecturers who make up our fast-growing readership.

Our Facebook and Twitter pages provide an extra dimension giving followers and readers live updates of latest news, jobs and events as they occur.

“Irish Legal News has become a very useful tool for Solicitors. The news highlights most, if not all, recent updates in the Courts on a daily basis as well as publishing very useful articles written by others in the profession.”

Sinéad Carroll,
Partner at Cantillons Solicitors in Cork

“Irish Legal News alerts practitioners to new developments and I would regard it as a must-have service. It keeps me advised of the law, and not only those that I am interested in for my daily practice, but other areas of law where I may not normally practise but where it is important to know what is happening.”

Richard Grogan,
leading Employment Solicitor in Dublin
